

The Doors of Perception

"If the doors of perception were cleansed, everything would appear to man as it is,
infinite."

William Blake "The Marriage of Heaven and Hell"

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

1 Corinthians 2:14 (KJV)

Aldous Huxley popularized the term "The Doors of Perception" in his book of the same name which detailed his experiments with mescaline and his experiences while under the influence of this powerful drug. A door was indeed opened up and walked through, but who opened it and where did it take him?

Probably right about now you are wondering: What in the world has all this got to do with God and spiritual matters? Whilst praying the other day the Lord was speaking to me about perception. He has impressed upon my heart that the things coming to this world are going to blow the doors of perception off their hinges. People are going to be forced to deal with things that they've always dismissed as nonsense, and it is only those who are grounded in Christ and being guided by the Holy Spirit who will come through with their minds intact.

For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

Genesis 3:5-7 (KJV)

That door Huxley opened up was not in his mind but his spirit. I submit to you now that there was no difference between the experiences of Adam and Eve when they partook of that forbidden fruit and those of Huxley and others who indulge in psychedelics. In the case of Adam and Eve it was a fruit and the case of Huxley a peyote button, but otherwise the outcome was the same; Satan opened the eyes of the partakers.

Man has a natural, God given yearning for truth and a sense that there is a reality beyond what we normally perceive. But tragically he seeks to satisfy this need in the wrong ways. As we can see Satan is happy to oblige us in this endeavor. On one side of this doorway is the physical reality that we all share in common, on the other the spiritual reality that we normally only get brief glimpses of. There are many in this world that deny there is anything on the other side of that door, and strangely enough even some who call themselves Christians deny much of it as well.

Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

Numbers 22:31 📖 (KJV)

And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

2 Kings 6:17 (KJV) 📖

Our God opens doors too, but what He shows us is truth, things exactly as they are beyond the doors of perception. This is not done for us on demand however, but only when the Holy Spirit chooses to move. When we allow Satan to open those doors for us through the use of pharmaceuticals what we are shown is not the truth. Like Adam and Eve we all pay a hefty price for doing things our own way.

When a person uses drugs to open those doors of perception what they are getting is a satanic counterfeit of the spirit world. But before you sit back and say that you would never fall for that you need to be aware that drugs are not the only way to open up those doors of perception.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

1 Timothy 4:1 (KJV) 📖

A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

Matthew 16:4 (KJV) 📖

In these last days churches all over the world are falling for satanic counterfeits of spiritual things. And they do it for the exact same reason; they want spiritual experiences on their own terms, not God's. They demand signs and wonders but are not living the Godly type of lives required to get them from Him. And once again Satan is more than happy to oblige those who seek signs with things like falling over, laughing, crying, shaking, peculiar movements, roars, barking like animals and gold flakes falling.
